6. The method(s) used by the institution to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they would receive under Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act.

In accordance with guidance provided by the US Department of Education, West Kern Community College District students were evaluated for the following eligibility criteria:

- a. Filed 19-20 FAFSA reflecting financial need
- b. Actively enrolled for Spring 2020
- c. Be currently enrolled in a degree or certificate program
- d. Not be enrolled in elementary or secondary school
- e. Must be maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress
- f. Not owe an Overpayment of Title IV Grants or Loans
- g. Not be in Default on a Title IV Loan
- h. Be a U.S. Citizen or National, Permanent Resident, or other eligible noncitizen status
- i. Have returned fraudulently obtained Title IV funds if convicted or plead guilty or no contest to charges
- j. Not have fraudulently received Title IV Loans in excess of annual or aggregate limits
- k. Have repaid Title IV loan amounts in excess of annual or aggregate limits if obtained inadvertently
- l. Have Selective Service registration verified
- m. Have Social Security Number verified
- n. Not have a federal or state conviction for drug possession or sale, with certain time limitations

International and Undocumented Students: According to the ED's April 21, 2020 guidance states students must meet Title IV eligibility requirements in order to receive HEERF-student share funds. Therefore, international and undocumented students are not eligible to receive emergency grants.

Online Students: Students enrolled exclusively in online programs on March 13 (the date of President Trump's national emergency proclamation) are not eligible for HEERF-student share funds, per ED's April 21, 2020 guidance.

Students must meet Title IV eligibility requirements in order to receive HEERF emergency funds. After confirming the Title IV eligibility requirements, the institution retains discretion over which students will receive HEERF-student share funds. According to the certification agreement, institutions are required to comply with "all applicable laws, including non-discrimination laws" when determining who will receive the emergency grants.

Students meeting the eligibility criteria listed above will receive an emergency grant in the amount of $600.
