

We are excited to offer Tutoring for Distance Ed (online) students!

Here's a little information on what to expect when attempting to use this resource:

This tab, may not be visible in all courses. It's up to the instructor to allow this tab to be used.

You will have a couple different options for tutoring. You will be able to use:

- Meet with a live tutor: online tutoring that takes place at the same time from different locations.
- Drop off a paper for feedback from a writing tutor.
- Drop off a question that you may have and get a response from a tutor. Can take up to 48 hours, so schedule your questions accordingly with your assignment due dates.
- Your locker: In each section you receive tutoring, you will get a locker with all past tutoring session to refer back to.

Tutor Availability– If you notice that there are not live tutors available at the time you need, you can check tutoring availability in each area.

The screenshot shows a 'Tutor Availability' interface with several overlapping windows. A 'Tutor Schedule' button is circled in red. The windows display availability for various subjects:
