

Standards of Student Conduct

The Taft College Incarcerated Student Program, along with the facility, reserve the right to revoke admission to the program for any reason, including, but not limited to:

Cheating, plagiarism, or engaging in other academic dishonesty as defined by the District. This includes, but is not limited to, sharing your work with other students, submitting work that is not your own, and using the ideas/opinions of others without proper citations.

Causing or attempting to cause damage to District property.

Intimidating faculty, staff, or other students through words or actions, standing in close proximity, direct physical contact, verbal assaults, or any other form of intimidation.

Disruptive behavior, willful disobedience, habitual profanity or vulgarity, persistent abuse of any kind, or the open and persistent defiance of the authority of Taft College Faculty and Staff.

Dishonesty; forgery; alteration or misuse of District documents, records, or identification; or knowingly furnishing false information to the District.

Lewd, indecent, or obscene conduct, regardless of medium (to include written documents).

Engaging in expression which is obscene, libelous or slanderous, or which so incites students as to create a clear and present danger of the commission or unlawful acts, or the violation or lawful District administrative procedures, or the substantial disruption of the orderly operation of the District.

Persistent, serious misconduct where other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct.

Failure to comply with directions of District personnel acting in the performance of their duties.

Using the computer lab for anything other than Taft College assignments.

Threats to Faculty and Staff in any format, even if they are alleged, perceived, or implied.

I, _____ (printed name) _____, understand that misconduct reported by prison officials or Taft College faculty or staff, of any kind, is grounds for indefinite dismissal from the program.
