

BP 1100 The West Kern Community College District

Reference:

Education Code Section 72000(b)

The District has been named the West Kern Community College District.

The name is the property of the District. No person shall, without the permission of the Board, use this name or the name of any college or other facilities of the District, or any abbreviation of them, to imply, indicate or otherwise suggest that an organization, product or service is connected or affiliated with, or is endorsed, favored, supported, or opposed by, the District.

The District consists of the following college and education centers:

Taft College

WESTEC (Westside Energy Services Training & Education Center, Inc.)

North Kern Training Center