

HISTORY 2210 - World Civilization to 1500

1 - Analyze ways in which human groups have interacted with one another, including trade, migration, warfare, cultural exchange, and biological exchange, from early times to 1500 C.E. using historical developments across national, regional, and cultural boundaries.

2 - Demonstrate the ability to interpret primary and secondary sources and to compose an argument which explains their historical significance in reference to any of the following; race, class, gender and ethnicity; the relationship between humans and their physical and natural environment; political, social, and economic organizations; major discoveries, inventions, and scientific achievements; and, art, music, architecture, literature and religion.