Course Level SLOs: COSC 1532- Basic Internet Skills & Concepts

Course Level SLO	Institutional SLO(s) aligned with	Examples of Assessment(s)*
K- Students will be able to describe internet components, elements, and resources and how they function. (K-Knowledge)	1. Communication 2. Computation 3. Critical Thinking 4. Community and Global Consciousness 5. Discipline Content	Written exam Presentations Demonstrations Visual charts and displays
S- Students will be able to demonstrate how the internet can be used for research, communications, and business. (Skill-Psychomotor)	1. Communication 2. Computation 3. Critical Thinking 4. Community and Global Consciousness 5. Discipline Content	Lab demonstrations Scenarios Simulations Research reports Specific applications
A- Students will be able to show how their studies about the internet has changed their attitudes and skills. (A- Affective)	1. Communication 3. Critical Thinking 4. Community and Global Consciousness 5. Discipline Content	Formal presentation Scenario Reflective essay

(You may add or delete as many cells as you need. Aim for a manageable amount of SLOs that indicate the most important outcomes of your course.)

Reviewed by: David Layne, Adam Bledsoe   on: 11-Jan-2018

Reviewed by: Applied Technology Division   on: 11-Jan-2018